

List of Changes for the January 2025 protocol update:

1. Removal of Phenylephrine from Pulmonary Edema protocol. Addition of Push Dose Epinephrine to the Pulmonary Edema protocol. Formulary for both Push Dose Epinephrine and Phenylephrine updated to reflect this change.
2. Addition of Tranexamic Acid to Hemorrhage Control Protocol and Formulary.
3. Updating of the Adult Stable Tachycardia and Adult Unstable Tachycardia protocols to direct providers to the Electrical Therapy/Cardioversion and Electrical Therapy/Transcutaneous Pacing procedures protocols for sedation and analgesia medications and dosages.
4. Updates to the Adult Allergic Reaction protocol including definitions of allergic reaction and anaphylaxis.
5. Updates to the Pediatric Allergic Reaction protocol including definitions of allergic reaction and anaphylaxis and change on the dose of diphenhydramine to 1 mg/kg for all routes.
6. Creation of a Patient Restraints Operations protocol.
7. Change in the scope of practice to allow EMTs to administer Acetaminophen PO. Reflected in both Adult and Pediatric Pain Management protocols.
8. Change in the scope of practice to allow AEMTs to administer Acetaminophen IV, IO, and PO. Reflected in both the Adult and Pediatric Pain Management protocols.
9. Dose of Acetaminophen PO on Adult Pain Management protocol to read : 325 mg to 1 g PO.
10. Maximum dose added to Acetaminophen PO on Pediatric Pain Management to read: maximum single dose 1 g.
11. Repeat dosing for Morphine in adult patients changed to read: “May repeat after 10 minutes”. Reflected in Adult Pain Management, Electrical Therapy: Synchronized Cardioversion, and Electrical Therapy: Transcutaneous Pacing protocols.
12. Removal of Etomidate from the Electrical Therapy: Transcutaneous Pacing protocol.